Honda Motorcycle and Scooter India to launch promotional campaign for Activa 125 BS-VI. Yadvinder Singh Guleria, senior vice president, Sales & Marketing, Honda Motorcycle & Scooter India Pvt. Ltd. said, 'By launching a BSVI two-wheeler six months ahead of emission norms, Honda is all set for a quick, silent and innovative start into the new era. The new Activa 125 BS-VI campaign is inspired by something everyone has all experienced, right from our birth to school, college and so on... the desire to replace the noise with the power of silence. The revolutionary ESP technology, industry-first features of Activa 125 BSVI bring to life the meaning of 'A silent revolution'. And adding the perfect spice to this campaign is Twinkle Khanna shushing Akshay in the end yet again.' [Editorial queries for this story should be sent to abn@enpublishing.co.uk].
